

Wisconsin Full-Time MBA » MBA PROGRAM CHECKLIST

WISCONSIN
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

TOGETHER FORWARD®

Step 1: Formalize Your Acceptance

❑ Accept Your Admission Offer

In order to accept your admission offer, the Wisconsin School of Business requires a nonrefundable deposit of $1,500 which will be credited to your fall tuition bill upon enrollment. This deposit secures your seat in the Class of 2022. To accept your admission offer and pay your enrollment deposit, log in to your application account at admissions.wsb.wisc.edu.

❑ Register for On, Wisconsin!/ OP Bootcamp Weekend

On, Wisconsin! Weekend is a full weekend dedicated to newly admitted MBA students, which will be held April 4-6, 2020. This weekend is a great opportunity for you to meet your future classmates, explore Madison, look at housing options, and learn more about our unique MBA program.

» Learn more about On, Wisconsin!/OP Bootcamp Weekend on the New Admit site. The deadline for priority housing for this event is March 10, 2020. go.wisc.edu/mba-new-admits

❑ Verify Official Test Scores and Transcripts

Check your online application to confirm that your test scores are verified and official transcripts from your degree-granting institutions have been received.

❑ Activate Your NetID

In order to have access to important enrollment and financial aid information, you need to activate your NetID. Your NetID will allow access to several other checklist items, so make sure to set this up as soon as possible. This process will take no longer than five minutes to complete, but you will need your nine-digit student ID number to get started. This number is printed on your admission letter.

❑ Register for MBA Orientation

<https://charge.wisc.edu/wsob/MBAOrientation.aspx>

Submit your MBA Orientation registration and special course fee payment of $400 by June 30, 2020.

August 19-21, 2020 (optional)

August 24, 2020 (international student orientation begins)

August 24-28, 2020 (required)
